

CARJ AGM 5 November 2022

Nominations for Election of Trustees

Only one Trustee is standing down at this AGM – Prof. Protasia Torkington. She has been nominated to be re-elected. Before retiring, Protasia was a Dean at Liverpool Hope University, where she initiated and organised the Black Science Summer School. She has been involved with CARJ for many years.

This page will be updated as we receive additional nominations